DIVING WITH DOLPHINS AND DAVID (A Rhyme Royal)

I watch our boat plow ripe Bahama blue, collecting dolphin dorsals in our froth-skids. Parenthesizing us, they arch on cue--rollercoasting creatures just like kids in circus midways. Unimpressed with grids and charts, they trail confetti-glitter high, and volley fragment diamonds in my eye.

The salty core of my aquatic dream:

To slither like a seal through liquid warm, awaking dozing redfins. Their bright stream will lead the way and fling a fiery storm of living arrows, cross the scooping form of undulating outriders, our pair—

Pagliacci faces grinning us a dare.
